Overview of First Things First

In November 7, 2006, Arizonans made a historic decision on behalf of our state's youngest citizens. By majority vote, they made a commitment to all Arizona children five and younger: that children would have the tools they need to arrive at school healthy and ready to succeed. The voters backed that promise with an 80-cent per pack increase on tobacco products to provide dedicated and sustainable funding for early childhood services for our youngest children.

The mission of First Things First (FTF) is to increase the quality of, and access to, early childhood programs that will ensure a child entering school arrives healthy and ready to succeed. The mission will be achieved through the work of the statewide FTF Board and the 31 Regional Partnership Councils that share the responsibility of ensuring that these early childhood funds are spent on strategies that will result in improved education and health outcomes for children five and younger.

Why focus on children five and younger? Research shows that 80 percent of a child's brain is formed by age three and more than 90 percent by age five. Because of this rapid development, what happens to children in the early years lays the foundation for a lifetime. Research has proven that children with quality early childhood experiences do better in school and tend to be healthier. They are more likely to advance into college and successful careers.

Not all children have the same needs and First Things First is designed to meet the diverse needs of Arizona communities. Decisions about which early childhood development and health strategies will be funded are made by the FTF Board and 31 Regional Partnership Councils that are comprised of community volunteers. Each Regional Council member represents a specific segment of the community that has a stake in ensuring that our children grow up to be healthy productive adults, including parents, tribal representatives, educators, health professionals, business leaders, philanthropists and leaders of faith communities. The Regional Councils study the challenges faced by children in their communities and the resources and assets that exist to support their development and growth. This statewide policy and regional perspective are critical to the success of the First Things First mission.

First Things First Goal Areas

First Things First specifies that programs and services are funded by the First Things First Board and Regional Partnership Councils are to achieve outcomes in one or more of the following Goal Areas:

- Improve the quality of early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase the access to quality early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase access to preventive health care and health screenings for children through age five.
- Offer parent and family support and education concerning early childhood development and literacy.

- Provide professional development and training for early childhood development and health providers.
- Increasing coordination of early childhood development and health programs and provide public information about the importance of early childhood development and health.

What is the Funding Source?

First Things First provides for distribution of funding through both statewide and regional grants. Statewide programs are considered those implemented across regional boundaries and are designed to benefit Arizona's children as a whole. Regional funding is based on the approval of the Regional Partnership Council funding plans submitted to the FTF Board each year.

This Request for Grant Application (RFGA) is specifically dedicated to funding regional programs. The Regional Partnership Council that is involved in the release of this RFGA is the Pinal Regional Partnership Council.

Who is Eligible to Apply for this Funding Opportunity?

First Things First awards grants to:

- Non-profit 501 (c) (3) organizations providing services in Arizona (both secular and faithbased)
- Units of Arizona government (local, county and state entities as well as schools and school districts)
- Federally recognized Tribal governments or entities providing services within Arizona
- Arizona institutions of higher learning (colleges and universities)
- Private organizations providing services in Arizona

All potential Applicants must demonstrate organizational, fiscal and programmatic capacity to meet the requirements described in the scope of work listed in this RFGA.

What is the Total Funding Amount Available in this Request for Grant Application?

This is a twelve (12) month contract for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2012 with an option for renewal for two (2) additional twelve (12) month periods. Total funds available are approximately $750,000 for the first funding period. First Things First reserves the right not to award the entire amount of available funds or to award an amount that is greater than the posted available funds. Renewal will be contingent upon satisfactory contract performance, evaluation and availability of funds. One or multiple awards may be made.

Scope of Work: What Will This Grant Fund?

Strategy Overview

The Pinal Regional Partnership Council has identified the need for regional implementation of the following strategies:

- 1. Expand existing home visiting programs for service delivery to all Pinal Regional communities for the prevention of abuse and neglect.
- 2. Expand or establish new home visitation programs that support parents and caregivers in their ability to promote their children's optimal development and health.
- 3. Support, enhance and implement home visitation programs and services that provide parents and caregivers access to information, resources and high-quality social support.
- Expand the capacity of home visitation programs to provide early language and emergent literacy development supports and services to young children and their families in their homes.

It is the grantee's responsibility to maintain their accreditation/certification with national program models. Home Visitation grantees are to include staff training, program model accreditation/certification and quality assurance and evaluation costs in budgets, as needed. Programs will need to refer to their National office and/or administrative home for cost information, if applicable.

Target Population

The intended target population of this funding opportunity is for 220 families with children birth through five years of age who reside within the boundaries as described above. Applicants should target at risk and vulnerable populations, including low-income families, pregnant and parenting teens, grandparents raising grandchildren, un-served and/or underserved populations, families living in isolated geographic areas, and families of children with special needs. Applicants should also target those families not currently served through existing home visiting efforts in the region.

Geographic Boundaries

The Pinal Regional Partnership Council serves, and Applications submitted in response to this RFGA must serve, all communities within the Pinal region. The Pinal Regional Partnership Council area encompasses the geographic boundaries of Pinal County, the Ak-Chin Indian Community, and the Town of Apache Junction, adding the portion of Apache Junction in Maricopa County, deducting the portion of the Tohono O'odham Tribe in Pinal County, deducting the portion of the Gila River Indian Community in Pinal County and deducting the portion of the San Carlos Apache Reservation that is in Pinal County.

Assessment of Need

A needs and assets assessment of the region has shown that there is a lack of sufficient quality family support and education services. This lack of services places many children living within the region at risk of school failure. There is also a lack of capacity among available programs to meet the needs of all families in the region in addition to a limited geographic service area of available programs. In order to address these needs, the Pinal Regional Partnership Council is seeking Applicants to implement home visitation strategies.

Research suggests that the best home visiting programs have been able to help parents learn parenting skills, increase confidence in their parenting skills, promote appropriate parent-child interactions and increase linkages with community services including health and social services. Home visiting has been shown to be highly effective with regard to promoting effective parenting in the area of preventing abuse and neglect. Family support is the foundation for enhancing children's positive social and emotional development. Parents and families need education and support to understand child development and health and to develop parenting skills as well as have access to resources to be the best parents possible.

A variety of home visitation program models exist and differ in many technical aspects, such as the target population, the experience and credentials of the home visitor, the duration and intensity of the visits, and the end goal or focus of the intervention. Yet, the common ground that unites home visitation program models is the importance placed on infant and toddler development. Parents play a pivotal role in shaping their children's lives and often the best way to reach families with young children is by bringing services to their front door.

Implementation Requirements

This Request for Grant Application is seeking Applicants to address these specific Goals and Key Measures:

First Things First Goal Area to be addressed:

Family Support

First Things First Goals to be addressed:

- First Things First will coordinate and integrate with existing education and information systems to expand families' access to high quality, diverse and relevant information and resources to support their child's optimal development.
- First Things First will increase the availability, quality and diversity of relevant resources that support language and literacy development for young children and their families.
- First Things First will collaborate with existing Arizona early childhood health care systems to improve children's access to quality health care.

First Things First Key Measures to be addressed:

 Percentage of families with children birth through age five who report they are competent and confident about their ability to support their child's safety, health and well-being.

- Percentage of families with children birth through age five who report they are satisfied with the accessibility of information and resources on child development and health.
- Percentage of families with children birth through age five who report they maintain language and literacy rich home environments.
- Percentage of families with children birth through age five who report reading to their children daily in their primary language.
- Total number and percentage of children with health insurance.
- Percentage of families who report they are satisfied with the level of coordination and communication among agencies serving their children.
- Total number and percentage of children receiving appropriate and timely well-child visits.
- Ratio of children referred and found eligible for early intervention.

The purpose of this funding opportunity is to allow for the expansion of existing evidence-based home visitation programs, allowing them to expand to target populations they do not currently serve or to expand existing programs to deliver services to all families with emphasis on unserved or underserved geographic areas.

- Priority will be given to program(s) that agree to help transition families from the current regionally funded program into the proposed program.
- Preference will be given to approaches that are research-based and to applicants who can demonstrate positive outcomes for the target population.

Successful Applicants must comply with First Things First Home Visitation (Exhibit A), Literacy (Exhibit B) and Developmental Screening Administration (Exhibit C) Standards of Practices. In addition, successful Applicants must also comply with the Home Visitation Child Protective Services (CPS) Policy (Exhibit D). Applicants are asked to build on existing home visitation programs, allowing expansion to the service areas or target populations that are not currently served. This may include expanding resources to underserved locations in the region and expanding services to rural and underserved communities within the region, as well as allowing for the development of new services. A strong emphasis must be placed on collaborative partnerships among numerous community and neighborhood-based entities. Applicants will identify how the programming proposed will be coordinated and aligned across the community with the other community organizations providing services.

Applicants must:

- demonstrate how the proposed program will enhance family support through programs that are both evidence-based and relevant to the Pinal Region;
- demonstrate a history of collaboration with other service providers and community resources and be able to refer families as needed; and
- demonstrate collaboration among community and neighborhood-based entities as well as describe their agency's capacity to network and collaborate with other service providers to better provide and coordinate the services families need.

It is expected that In-Home Family Literacy Programs and Home Visitation programs funded by First Things First will offer a comprehensive program to the families they serve. Successful implementation will include a focus on connecting literacy support and development efforts to families where they spend time, such as their homes, child care centers, public spaces, doctors' offices, libraries, etc.

Family participation in family literacy services will be voluntary and must be provided free of charge to the family.

Accommodations and adaptations should be made for children and adults with special needs or disabilities.

Programs must use curriculum that is evidence/research-based and founded on proven literacy development practices. If no standardized research based curricula exists, then family literacy can be enhanced through programs that are both evidence-based and culturally and linguistically relevant to the community served.

Applicants must demonstrate a history of collaboration with other service providers and community resources. In addition, applicant must participate in family support coalitions/alliance. Applicant must have prior experience working with the target population.

Applicants must demonstrate knowledge of adult learning principles.

Applicants must show staff qualifications, supervision and training that will support the successful implementation of the research-based model.

All staff conducting developmental screening or other screening using standardized tools must receive training to administer these tools through a formal training program approved by the administering agency of that standardized tool.

Applicants must demonstrate previous experience implementing similar programs that produced positive outcomes for a similar target population. Implementation should include demonstrated understanding of the parent's and/or caregiver's literacy strengths and recognition of the literacy history of parents; provision of an opportunity for adults and children to reflect on literacy practices in their daily lives; and recognition of oral language as the foundation for literacy development. In addition, applicants are asked to demonstrate a history of collaboration with other service providers and community resources and must participate in family support coalitions, if applicable to the region. Applicants are also required to demonstrate how they can effectively reach families with young children through their proposed efforts, including linguistically or socially isolated families or families with low educational attainment.

Standards of Practice

Successful Applicants must comply with First Things First Home Visitation (Exhibit A), Literacy (Exhibit B), and Developmental Screening Administration (Exhibit C). Successful Applicants must also comply with the Home Visitation Child Protective Services (CPS) Policy (Exhibit D).

Coordination

First Things First prioritizes coordination and collaboration among early childhood service providers as critical to developing a seamless service delivery system for children and families. As a result of coordination and collaboration, services are often easier to access and are implemented in a manner that is more responsive to the needs of the children and families. Coordination and collaboration may also result in greater capacity to deliver services because organizations are working together to identify and address gaps in service. Successful Applicants must demonstrate capacity to work with and participate in coordination and collaboration activities occurring within the First Things First region(s) being served. This may include but is not limited to participating in regular meetings. Depending upon the strategy, there may be additional statewide meetings which the successful Applicants may be asked to attend, as noted in the Scope of Work. In order to accomplish this, Applicants should plan the appropriate staffing and budget to support travel to and attendance at monthly meetings within the regional area or statewide meetings, as appropriate.

Program Specific Data Collection and First Things First Evaluation

Successful Applicant(s) agree to participate in the FTF evaluation and any program specific evaluation or research efforts. Data collection and FTF evaluation activities are directly connected with Goals, Performance Measures and Units of Service aligned to the strategy described in this RFGA.

Units of Service and related Target Service Number Definition:

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number). A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as a part of an agreement. The Target Service Number represents the number of unit (e.g. target population) proposed to be served or number of products/services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For example, for the FTF strategy Home Visitation the FTF Unit of Service "number of families served" and a Target Service Number of 50 represents the number of families the Applicant proposes to serve during the contract period. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

Performance Measures Definition:

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g. serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g., providing scholarships).

Successful Applicants must have capacity to collect and submit FTF data requirements, securely and confidentially store client data, and utilize data to assess progress in achieving desired outcomes of the proposed strategy. Units of Service, Target Service Numbers, and Performance Measures outline how quarterly data submissions will be evaluated according to the contracted deliverables and standards of practice for the contract. Additionally, they are used by FTF to determine the key impacts of the strategies, programs and approaches being implemented.

All successful Applicants will be provided with data reporting requirements by FTF and will meet the requirements of the FTF evaluation including, but not limited to, timely and regular reporting and cooperation with all FTF evaluation activities. Timely and regular reporting of all performance and evaluation data including the electronic submission of data (as identified in data reporting templates designed for each strategy) through the FTF secure web portal known as PGMS.

Successful Applicants are required to collaborate with the FTF external evaluation, which means the successful Applicant must collaborate with the external evaluation-led child assessment activities. Collaborative activities may include tracking and reporting data pertaining to participant attendance, enrollment, and demographic information. In addition, Applicants agree to allow FTF and evaluation consultants of FTF to observe program activities onsite and successful Applicants must collaborate with FTF led and initiated evaluation activities to encourage parent consent for data collection.

Units of Service and Performance Measures that are aligned to the Goal for the purposes of this RFGA are as follows:

Unit of Service:

• Total number of families receiving home visiting services

Performance Measures:

- Total number of families receiving home visiting services/proposed service number
- Home Visitor caseload /proposed service number
- Family attrition/target service number
- Home visitor attrition/target service number
- Total number of children receiving home visiting services /proposed service number
- Total number of families receiving referrals for health insurance or health coverage enrollment/target service number
- Total number of families receiving referrals for community based services/ target service number
- Total number of children receiving developmental screening/target service number
- Total number and percentage of families reported satisfaction with provided home visitation services/total services number (minimum questions provided by FTF)

For further information on Units of Service and Target Service Numbers, see Exhibit E.

If the Grantee or sub-contractor(s) is/are a State of Arizona agency, board, commission, or university, none of the above shall apply.
 - 5.4 Force Majeure. If either party hereto is delayed or prevented from the performance of any act required in this Agreement due to acts of God, strikes, lockouts, labor disputes, civil disorder, or other causes without fault and beyond the control of the party obligated, performance of or payment for such act will be excused for the period of the delay.
 - 5.5 Third Party Antitrust Violations. The Grantee assigns to First Things First any claim for cover charges resulting from antitrust violations to the extent that those violations concern materials or services supplied by third parties to the Grantee, toward fulfillment of this Contract.

6. Compliance

- 6.1 Compliance with Applicable Laws. The services supplied under this Contract shall comply with all applicable Federal, state and local laws, and the Grantee shall maintain all applicable licenses and permit requirements.
- 6.2 Sectarian Requests. Funds may not be expended for any sectarian purpose or activity, including sectarian worship or instructions.
- 6.3 Restrictions on Lobbying. The Grantee shall not use these funds to pay for, influence, or seek to influence any officer or employee of First Things First, state government or the federal government if that action may have an impact, of any nature, on this contract.

- 6.4 Licenses. Grantee shall maintain in current status all federal, state and local licenses and permits required for the operation of the business conducted by the Grantee.
- 6.5 Fingerprinting. Pursuant to A.R.S. §41-1758 Grantee will obtain fingerprint cards and/or background checks as applicable.

This Contract may be cancelled or terminated if the fingerprint check or the certified form of any person who is employed by a provider, whether paid or not, and who is required or allowed to provide services directly to children, discloses that a person has committed any act of sexual abuse of a child, including sexual exploitation or commercial sexual exploitation, or any act of child abuse or that the person has been convicted of or awaiting trial on any criminal offenses in this state or similar offenses in another state or jurisdiction.

7. State's Contractual Remedies

- 7.1 Right to Assurance. If First Things First in good faith has reason to believe that the Grantee does not intend to, or is unable to perform or continue performing under this Contract, the Grants and Contracts Procurement Specialist may demand in writing that the Grantee give a written assurance of intent to perform. Failure by the Grantee to provide written assurance within the number of Days specified in the demand may be, at First Things First's discretion, the basis for terminating the Contract under the First Things First Uniform Terms and Conditions or other rights and remedies available by law or provided by the contract.
- 7.2 Cancellation for Failure to Perform. Failure by the Grantee to adhere to any provision of this Agreement or its Attachments in the time and manner provided by this Contract or its Attachments shall constitute a material default and breach of this Contract and First Things First may cancel, at its option, this Agreement upon prior written notice.

First Things First may issue a written ten (10) day notice of default to the Grantee for acting or failing to act including but not limited to any of the following:

- The Grantee fails to perform adequately the services required in this Agreement.
- The Grantee fails to furnish the required product or services within the time stipulated in this Agreement.
- The Grantee fails to make progress in the performance of the requirements of the Agreement and/or gives a positive indication that the Grantee will not or cannot perform to the requirements of this Agreement.

If the Grantee does not correct any problem(s) within ten (10) days after receiving the notice of default, First Things First may cancel the Contract. If First Things First cancels the Contract pursuant to this clause, First Things First reserves all rights or claims to damage for breach of the Contract and the Grantee agrees to a general release in favor of First Things First for any claim for reimbursement.

7.3 Non-Exclusive Remedies The rights and the remedies of First Things First under this Contract are not exclusive.

8. Contract Termination

- 8.1 Cancellation for Conflict of Interest. Pursuant to A.R.S. §38-511, First Things First may cancel this Contract within three (3) years after Contract execution without penalty or further obligation if any person significantly involved in initiating, negotiating, securing, drafting or creating the Contract on behalf of First Things First is or becomes at any time while the Contract or an extension of the Contract is in effect an employee of or a consultant to any other party to this Contract with respect to the subject matter of the Contract. The cancellation shall be effective when the Grantee receives written notice of the cancellation unless the notice specifies a later time. If the Grantee is a political subdivision of the State of Arizona, it may also cancel this Contract as provided in A.R.S. §38-511.
- 8.2 Suspension or Debarment. First Things First may, by written notice to the Grantee, immediately terminate this Contract if First Things First determines that the Grantee has been debarred, suspended or otherwise lawfully prohibited from participating in any public procurement activity, including but not limited to, being disapproved as a subcontractor of any public procurement unit or other governmental body. Submittal of an Application or execution of a contract shall attest that the Grantee is not currently suspended or debarred. If the Grantee becomes suspended or debarred, the Grantee shall immediately notify First Things First.
- 8.3 Termination for Convenience. First Things First reserves the right to terminate the Contract, in whole or in part at any time, when in the best interests of First Things First without penalty or recourse. Upon receipt of the written notice, the Grantee shall stop all work, as directed in the notice, notify all subcontractors of the effective date of the termination and minimize all further costs to First Things First. In the event of termination under this paragraph, all documents, data and reports prepared by the Grantee under the Contract shall become the property of and be delivered to First Things First upon demand. The Grantee shall be entitled to receive just, equitable compensation for work in progress, work completed, and materials accepted before the effective date of the termination. The cost principles and procedures provided in A.A.C. R2-7-701 shall apply.
- 8.4 Termination for Default. In addition to the rights reserved in the contract, First Things First may terminate the Contract in whole or in part due to the failure of the Grantee to comply with any term or condition of the Contract, to acquire and maintain all required insurance policies, bonds, licenses and permits, or to make satisfactory progress in performing the Contract. The Grants and Contracts Procurement Specialist shall provide written notice of the termination and the reasons for it to the Grantee. Upon termination under this paragraph, all materials, documents, data and reports prepared by the Grantee under the Contract shall become the property of and be delivered to First Things First on demand. Upon termination of this Contract, First Things First may procure, on terms and in the manner that it deems appropriate, materials or services to replace those under this Contract. The Grantee shall be liable to First Things First for any excess costs incurred by First Things First in procuring services in substitution for those due from the Grantee.

How to Complete the Line Item Budget and Budget Narrative

Complete a 12-month budget for the period of July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012 using the template provided in Attachment F. Please make sure you include a budget narrative as Attachment G.

Please keep in mind items described in a line item budget and in more detail in the budget narrative should describe how the costs were determined and the public purpose for the cost related successfully implementing the project. Please assure that all requested funds follow these guidelines:

- Be necessary and reasonable for proper and efficient performance and administration of First Things First funds.
- Be authorized or not prohibited under State or local laws or regulations.
- Be consistent with policies, regulations, and procedures that apply uniformly to all costs charged and expended by the agency consistent treatment of costs.
 - For example a cost may not be assigned to another grant award as an indirect cost if any other cost incurred for the same purposes in like circumstances has been allocated to the First Things First award as a direct cost.
 - For example a cost for a certain type of expense is charged one rate to another source of funding and a different rate to First Things First - this would not be consistent treatment of costs.
- Be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Be adequately documented.
- All travel related costs for these trainings and meetings should be included in the Applicant's budget and calculated using the State of Arizona travel rate limitations for mileage, per diem and lodging as described on the budget narrative worksheet. For more information about the state requirements, visit http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/.
- Requests for line item modifications, which do not change the total program funding, shall be requested in writing and shall only be made following receipt of written authorization from First Things First.

Please note the line items included in the budget template represent the types of costs possible for a line item budget these line items may or may not be applicable or appropriate for your Application. Your budget line items requested must fit within one of the categories listed. However, it is expected that you would not need to utilize all of the sample line items.

Attachment G – Budget Narrative

The purpose of the budget narrative is to provide more clarity and detail on the various budget line items. The budget narrative should explain the criteria used to compute the budget figures on the budget form. Please verify that the narrative and budget form correspond and the calculations and totals are accurate. Please include one narrative that matches the 12 month line item budget categories and subcategories.

Personnel Services: Include information such as position title(s), name of employee (if known), salary, time to be spent on this program (hours or %), number of months assigned to this program, etc. Explain how the salary rate for each position was determined. If salaries are expected to increase during the project year, indicate the percentage increases for each position and justify the percent of the salary increase. Also, be sure to include the scheduled salary increases on the Budget Form.

Employee Related Expenses: Include a benefit percentage and what expenses make up employee benefit costs. Indicate any special rates for part-time employees, if applicable. Explain how the benefits for each position were determined. If using a fringe benefit rate, explain how this percentage is justified or approved by your agency.

Professional and Outside Services: If professional consultants/services costs are proposed in the budget, define how the costs for these services were determined and the justification for the services related to the project. Explain how all contracts will be procured.

Travel: Separate travel that is in-state and out-of-state. Include a detailed breakdown of hotel, transportation, meal costs, etc. Indicate the location(s) of travel, the justification for travel, how many employees will attend and how the estimates have been determined. Explain the relationship of each cost item to the project (e.g., if training or training expenses are requested, explain the topic of the training and its relationship to the project). Applicants must use the State of Arizona Travel Policy on rates limitations for mileage, lodging, and meals (http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/ for both in-state and out-of-state travel.

Aid to Organizations or Individuals: In the event that this application represents collaboration and the contract will be utilizing other sub grantees or subcontractors to perform various components of the program, include a list of sub grantees, programmatic work each sub grantee will perform, and how costs for each sub grantee are determined.

Other Operating Expenses: Explain each item to be purchased, how the costs were determined and justify the need for the items. All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. All items should be categorized in the following categories: Telephones / Communications Services, Internet Access, General Office Supplies, Food, Rent/Occupancy, Evaluation (non-contracted and non-personnel expenses), Utilities, Furniture, Postage, Software (including IT supplies), Dues/Subscriptions, Advertising, Printing/Copying, Equipment Maintenance, Professional Development/Staff Training, Conference Workshops/ Training Fees for Staff, Insurance, Program Materials, Program Supplies, Scholarships, and Program Incentives

Non-Capital Equipment: For items with a unit cost less than $5,000 and an initial estimated useful life beyond a single year, explain each item to be purchased, how the costs were determined and justify the need for the items. All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. For example, items such as computers, printers, projectors, etc. each with a unit cost less than $5,000.

Administrative/Indirect Costs: Administrative costs are general or centralized expenses of overall administration of an organization that receives grant funds and does not include particular program costs. For organizations that have an established federally approved indirect cost rate for Federal awards, indirect costs mean those costs that are included in the organization's indirect cost rate. Such costs are generally identified with the organization's overall operation and are further described in 2 CFR 220, 2 CFR 225, and 2 CFR 230.

Applicants must list either O	ption A or O	ption B and	provide proi	per justification	for expense	es included:

- Option A Administrative Costs: with proper justification, sub grantees may include an allocation for administrative costs for up to 10% of the total direct funds requested of the grant request. Administrative costs may include allocable direct charges for: costs of financial, accounting, auditing, contracting or general legal services; costs of internal evaluation, including overall organization's management improvement costs; and costs of general liability insurance that protects the organization(s) responsible for operating a project, other than insurance costs solely attributable to the project. Administrative costs may also include that portion of salaries and benefits of the project's director and other administrative staff not attributable to the time spent in support of a specific project.
- Or Option B Federally Approved Indirect Costs: If your organization has a federally approved indirect cost rate agreement in place, grantees may include an allocation for indirect costs for up to 10% of the grant request. Applicants must provide a copy of their federally approved indirect cost rate agreement.

Indirect costs are costs of an organization that are not readily assignable to a particular project, but are necessary to the operation of the organization and the performance of the project. The cost of operating and maintaining facilities, depreciation, and administrative salaries are examples of the types of costs that are usually treated as indirect.

FIRST THINGS FIRST Home Visitation Standards of Practice

Home visitation programs deliver education, information and support to families where they are - in their homes. Through stand-alone programs or in partnership with center-based services, voluntary home visitation programs educate families and bring them up-to-date information about health, child development and school readiness, and connect them to critical services. Home visitation is a bridge that links the resources of the community with the safety of the home environment, empowering even hard-to reach parents to build a better future for themselves and their children.

A variety of home visitation program models exist and differ in many technical aspects, such as the target population, the experience and credentials of the home visitor, the duration and intensity of the visits, and the end goal or focus of the intervention. Yet, the common ground that unites home visitation program models is the importance placed on infant and child development. Parents play a pivotal role in shaping their children's lives and often the best way to reach families with young children is by bringing services to their front door.

While each First Things First funded home visitation program may be uniquely designed, they all have a valuable role to play in meeting the complex needs of families and communities across the State of Arizona. First Things First focuses on programs and services that provide children with the best opportunities for school and life success. Funding decisions are based upon a robust process of review to ensure programs are supported by research, value the family, use approaches considered to be best practice and are responsive to the specific needs identified in each region. First Things First funded programs shall supplement, not supplant, other state expenditures and federal monies received for early childhood development and health programs.

It is expected that home visitation programs funded by First Things First will be comprehensive for the families they serve and will be offered at no-cost, on a voluntary basis. Programs are also expected to minimize duplication of home visitation services for families. Using a family-centered and strengths-based approach, these programs will also:

- Engage families in assessment of their strengths and needs particularly around the following areas: parental resilience; social connections; knowledge of parenting and child development; concrete support in times of need; and children's social-emotional development.
- Assist families in the development and implementation of a family service plan, which includes specific goals and objectives based upon assessment findings, and future planning for transition from the home visitation program.

- Ensure children receive developmental screening, preferably during well-child visits at 9, 18 and 24 months of age and every six months thereafter, or at any other time there are concerns about developmental delays, for all of the following developmental domains: motor, cognitive, social-emotional, language and self-help. If the home visitor is conducting the developmental screening, the First Things First Developmental Screening Standards of Practice must be followed.
- Assist families in developing skills related to observing and understanding their child's ongoing growth and developmental progress. Connect families with the most appropriate provider and/or agency when developmental or health related concerns are noted.
- Provide resource and referral information identify services available to families and the subsidies to which they may be entitled; help them to fill out the forms to gain those services; and help the families to follow through to ensure service delivery, as needed.
- Provide service coordination with other community resources to make an effort to minimize duplication and to ensure that families receive comprehensive services as needed.

Each family must receive information and support in each of the core areas: Parental resilience, social connections, knowledge of parenting and child development, concrete support mechanisms and children's social-emotional development. Information and support should be tailored to the needs of the family, as identified in the family service plan:

- All domains of child development (cognitive, communication, physical, social/emotional, and adaptive), including understanding when to have concerns related to children's development; and
- Appropriate child-adult interactions and development of parenting skills (i.e. physical touch, positive discipline, early language and literacy experiences and verbal and visual communications); and
- Health (e.g. nutrition; obesity; breastfeeding; physical activity; immunizations; oral health; insurance enrollment; participation in consistent medical/dental homes; participation in prenatal care; safety; developmental health; vision and hearing screening); and
- Identify their natural support systems such as peers.

Programs may also help families:

- Access opportunities to participate in family literacy activities.
- Address issues of substance abuse, domestic violence, mental health, and children with developmental delays or disabilities.
- Facilitate, arrange or organize group activities to further enhance socialization and peer support.

Programs will:

- 1. Provide services to families that are based upon a culture of trust and respect.
 - A. Create a family-centered environment:
 - Home visitors are from the community and have extensive knowledge of community resources.
 - Structure activities compatible with the family's availability and accessibility.
 - Demonstrate genuine interest in and concern for families.
 - B. Clearly define program objectives with the families upon enrollment; understanding what the program will accomplish helps families become fully engaged in program services.
 - C. Create opportunities for formal and informal feedback regarding services delivered and act upon it; ensure that input shapes decision-making.
 - D. Encourage open, honest communication.
 - E. Maintain confidentiality; be respectful of family members and protective of their legal rights.
- 2. Support the growth and development of all family members; encourage families to be resources for themselves and others.
 - A. Encourage family members to build upon their strengths.
 - B. Reflect the commitment to effectively serve the identified target population with an emphasis on fathers and grandparent caregivers, through publicity/outreach, literature and staff training.
 - C. Help families identify and acknowledge informal networks of support and community
 - D. Create opportunities to enhance parent-child and peer relationships.
- 3. Affirm, strengthen and promote families' cultural, racial and linguistic identities and enhance their ability to function in a multicultural society.
 - A. Create opportunities for families of different backgrounds to identify areas of common ground and to accept and value differences between them.
 - B. Strengthen parent and staff skills to advocate for themselves within institutions and agencies.
 - C. Hire staff who reflect the cultural and ethnic experiences and language of the families with whom they work and integrate their expertise into the entire program.
 - D. To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner- a manner compatible with their cultural beliefs and practices and preferred language. Early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers should ensure that staff at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Early childhood practitioners/early childhood service providers should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement to ensure that services are delivered in a manner that is consistent with the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services and/or the National Recommendations on Cultural and Linguistic Competence for the National Association for the Education of Young Children." http://minorityhealth.hhs.gov/templates/browse.aspx?lvl=2&lvlID=15; http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/linguistic

- 4. While ensuring model fidelity, programs are flexible and continually responsive to emerging family and community issues.
 - A. Be accessible for families. Offer extended service hours including weekend/evening hours.
 - B. To ensure quality services, caseload size for each staff person is based upon:
 - How many hours per week the home visitor works; and
 - Family need and intensity of services provided (for example, for families with high risk or multiple risk factors, frequency and intensity of programming can increase to allow for more time to build relationships, modify maladaptive behaviors or attitudes, or practice newly learned parenting skills); and
 - Where each family lives.

For example; 20 families is the maximum caseload for a home visitor working entirely in homes with families assessed as high risk or with multiple risk factors, at one visit per week.

- C. Engage families as partners to ensure that the program is beneficial. Families have regular input and feedback in programmatic planning to meet their needs.
- D. Develop a collaborative, coordinated response to community needs.
- 5. Home visitors receive ongoing staff development/training to ensure program quality and give staff an opportunity to develop professionally.
 - A. Assess home visitors' skills and abilities. Home visitors must be able to engage families while maintaining professional boundaries.
 - B. Prior to serving families, staff must have professional training or have participated in development opportunities to ensure a level of competency in service delivery.
 - C. Staff will receive training and information regarding mandatory reporting. Arizona law requires home visitation staff who suspect that a child has received a non-accidental injury or has been neglected, to report their concerns to Child Protective Services or local law enforcement (ARS §13-3620.A).

- D. A confidential case file is maintained for each family. This file will include documentation such as contact notes, intake, assessment or screening tools and the service plan. Programs will ensure quality of service provision through regular case file reviews.
- E. Provide ongoing staff development/training.
- F. Supervisors should work with home visitation program staff to prepare professional development plans.
- All First Things First Home Visitation Standards of Practice are modeled in all activities including planning, governance, and administration.
 - A. Wages and benefits are adequate for supporting high quality staff.
 - B. The length of employment and experience/education are reflective of high quality staff. Home visitors are required to have a minimum of a Bachelors degree in early childhood development, education, family studies, social work, nursing or a closely related field; unless a specific program model is implemented through lay-persons such as a promotora model of service delivery.
 - C. Establish an effective, consistent supervisory system that provides support for all staff members and ensures accountability to participants, funders, and the community.
 - D. Establish supervision as a collaborative process with mechanisms that support staff in difficult situations and provides ongoing opportunities for discussion between staff members and supervisors to reflect and debrief. Supervision will also include observation. It is important that supervisors spend time with home visitors in the field to have a sense of how the service is being delivered. This will help supervisors and staff to identify coaching and mentoring opportunities.
 - E. All staff work as a team, modeling respectful relationships.
 - F. Build a team of staff who is consistent with program goals and whose top priority is the well-being of families and children.
 - G. Structure governing bodies so that they reflect the diverse constituencies of the community and are knowledgeable about community needs.
 - H. Evaluation and monitoring is a collaborative, ongoing process that includes input from staff, families, program administrators, and community members.
 - 1. Activities, as identified by First Things First, include pre- and post- testing, selfassessment and opportunities for feedback; and
 - 2. Identify outreach, engagement and retention practices; and
 - Programs must demonstrate mechanisms to assess program effectiveness and to implement quality improvements. Programs must participate in data collection and reporting of performance measures to First Things First.

Early Language and Literacy Programs in Home and Community Settings Standards of Practice

Early childhood stakeholders, families, and communities recognize that when early language and literacy development is optimized, it can be the foundation for a child's later academic success in school. "The years from birth through age five are a critical time for children's development and learning. Early childhood educators understand that at home and in early childhood education settings, young children learn important skills that can provide them with the cornerstones needed for the development of later academic skills..." (Literacy, 2009)

Literacy acquisition encompasses the four domains of language (reading, writing, speaking and listening) and numeracy. Early literacy or precursor literacy skills include the following variables that are consistently shown to predict later literacy achievement:

- alphabet knowledge: knowledge of the names and sounds associated with printed letters phonological awareness: the ability to detect, manipulate, or analyze the auditory aspects of spoken language (including the ability to distinguish or segment words, syllables, or phonemes), independent of meaning
- rapid automatic naming of letters or digits: the ability to rapidly name a sequence of random letters or digits
- rapid automatic naming of objects or colors: the ability to rapidly name a sequence of repeating random sets of pictures of objects (e.g., "car," "tree," "house," "man") or colors
- writing or writing name: the ability to write letters in isolation on request or to write one's own name
- phonological memory: the ability to remember spoken information for a short period of time
- concepts about print: knowledge of print conventions (e.g., left-right, front-back) and concepts (book cover, author, text)
- print knowledge: a combination of elements of alphabet knowledge, concepts about print, and early decoding
- reading readiness: usually a combination of alphabet knowledge, concepts of print, vocabulary, memory, and PA
- oral language: the ability to produce or comprehend spoken language, including vocabulary and grammar
- visual processing: the ability to match or discriminate visually presented symbols

Programs that support young children's early language and literacy development are a part of the family support system in Arizona. An array of early language and literacy programs and service delivery methods may be implemented to meet the needs of families with young children. Research indicates that family literacy programs which provide learning opportunities for both the young child and his or her parents positively impact young children and their families. (Literacy N. C., 2009) According to Adult Education and Family Literacy Act (AEFLA) standards, the term "family literacy services" means programming that is of sufficient intensity in terms of hours, and of sufficient duration, to make sustainable changes in a family and that integrates all of the following core components:

- ✓ Interactive literacy activities between parents and their children, and
- ✓ Training for parents regarding how to be the primary teacher for their children and full partners in the education of their children, and
- ✓ Parent literacy training that leads to economic self-sufficiency, and
- ✓ An age-appropriate education to prepare children for success in school and life experiences.

Family literacy programs are built on four core principles; 1) the value of education for success in life, 2) the central role of the parent in a child's development, 3) the identification of individual strengths, and 4) the value of experiential learning.

While each First Things First funded early language and literacy program may be uniquely designed, they all have a valuable role to play in meeting the complex needs of families and communities across the State of Arizona. First Things First focuses on programs and services that provide children with the best opportunities for school and life success. Funding decisions are based upon a robust process of review to ensure programs are supported by research, value the family, use approaches considered to be best practice and are responsive to the specific needs identified in each region. First Things First funded programs shall supplement, not supplant, other state expenditures on, and federal monies received for early childhood development and health programs.

It is expected that early language and literacy programs funded by First Things First will be offered at no cost, on a voluntary basis. Programs and services can be delivered through home visitation or community based training. Please, also refer to the First Things First Home Visitation and/or Parent Education Community Based Training Standards of Practice documents.

Using a family-centered and strengths-based approach these programs will:

- 1. Provide a Focus on Literacy
 - A. Inform and educate parents and families on typical early language and emergent literacy development for children ages birth through five.
 - B. Literacy coaching and instruction should be woven into the activities of all program components; presented and practiced in contexts that are meaningful to families' lives and needs. If providing literacy services in a community based setting, it is critical that parents and families are taught to bridge classroom experiences to home environments with their own young children.

- C. Training for parents regarding how to be the primary teacher for their children and full partners in the education of their children.
 - Actively engage parents in learning how everyday experiences can nurture the literacy development of their children.
 - Support parents in maintaining a literacy-rich home environment.
 - Assist parents to learn how to advocate for their children within a variety of settings, including school, child care and human service agencies.
- 2. Use a research-based curriculum and activities to promote learning in contexts which are relevant to the lives of participants.
- 3. Provide Sufficient Intensity and Duration of Services
 - For example, typical frequency and duration of family literacy programs is a minimum of 6 sessions at 2 hours per session.

Programs may also:

Align with Arizona's Early Learning Standards/Guidelines.

Family literacy programs across the nation also take into consideration alignment with their state's Early Learning Guidelines which describe the expectations about what children should know (understand) and do (competency and skills) across the different domains of learning. In Arizona, the Department of Education developed Early Learning Standards to provide a framework for the planning of quality learning experiences for all children 3 to 5 years of age.

The document can be found here:

http://www.ade.state.az.us/earlychildhood/downloads/EarlyLearningStandards.pdf

First Things First is developing Early Learning Developmental Guidelines for infants and toddlers.

- Provide parent literacy training that leads to economic self-sufficiency.
 - Assist adults in raising their literacy levels.
 - Assist adults in gaining the knowledge and skills needed for employment and self sufficiency.
 - Assist adults who are parents in gaining educational skills they need to be full partners in the educational development of their children.
 - Assist adults in completing their secondary school education or its equivalent (e.g., English language classes, Adult Basic Education, Adult Secondary Education, preparation for the General Education Development (GED) examination, and workplace literacy)

- In community settings, instruction should include a combination of individual and group activities, and encourage cooperative learning.
- Assessment, both formal and informal, should occur on an ongoing basis in order to provide adult learners with feedback about progress they have made toward goals.
- Participants must be actively engaged in the decision-making process with regard to their education.
- Program staff must support adult learners in being self-directed, with understanding that adult education builds upon the knowledge, experiences and roles of participating adults.

All First Things First funded Home Based Early Language and Literacy Programs must also follow the First Things First Home Visitation Standards of Practice.

All First Things First funded Community Based Early Language and Literacy Programs must also follow the First Things First Parent Education Community Based Training Standards of Practice.

Exhibit C

STANDARDS OF PRACTICE¹

Developmental Screening Administration Practices

I. Description of Strategy

As part of a comprehensive system of services to families, some strategies may include the administration of a developmental screening to assist parents and other caregivers in identifying children who may be in need of additional intervention or support services. Developmental screening activities are an integral component of a larger early childhood system and only provide a small snapshot of children's abilities. Though brief, screening is comprehensive in that it includes a review of children's development in the cognitive, communication, physical, social-emotional and adaptive domains.

First Things First has adopted the following guidance to align with the recommended practices and support the system as a whole.

II. Developmental Screening Administration includes the following activities:

- Obtainment of parental consent.
- Administration of a developmental screening instrument.
- Observation of children in their natural setting where they are comfortable and involved in typical activities and routines such as meals, interactions with siblings, etc.
- Discussion with parents regarding their child's development.
- Interpretation and analysis of screening, observation and discussion results.
- Review of screening results with families.
- Referrals made as necessary to AzEIP, local schools, health care providers, behavioral health professionals, or other community resources.
- Coordination of services with other providers (health professionals, AzEIP providers, etc.) to ensure non-duplicative, collaborative activities.

III. Developmental Screening Administration Standards:

Screening Locations

• Screenings optimally occur in settings that are closely aligned to a child's natural environment (home, child care center, etc).

¹ The Developmental Screening Administration Standards of Practice includes supplemental standards to address the unique activities of a Mobile Play Based Family Outreach program inclusive of developmental screening activities. The appropriate supplemental standards should be attached along with the general standards for those contracts implementing a Mobile Play Based Family Outreach program.

• Screening is conducted where there are minimal distractions (e.g. no television or radio playing), but in a setting where the child can be observed while participating in naturally occurring activities and routines.

Screening Tools

- Screening tools used may be either criterion or norm-referenced, but chosen because they are the most appropriate option for use with the child and/or population being screened.
- If using standardized tools (with children ages three five), instruments must demonstrate at least a .80 reliability level.
- Screening tools used must be age and individually appropriate, ensuring that the cognitive and motor skills required for participation appropriately match the age of the child.
- Screening tools are comprehensive and assess children in all developmental domains: cognition, communication, physical, social-emotional, and adaptive.
- Screening tools for children three to five are designed to capture and hold a child's interest at an age appropriate level while minimizing distraction from other stimuli (approved tools for birth three are parent report instruments).
- Screening tools used with children birth to three must be approved for use by DES/AzEIP.

Conducting Screening

- Screening is conducted only after determining that no other screening has occurred within the last three months.
- Parent or guardian consent to screening is required before screening can occur.
- A procedure is in place to assess what other services are being received by the family and to coordinate screening with other providers that may be responsible for the same or similar activities.
- Screening is conducted only if no other entity has conducted a screening within the last three months.
- Screening must include soliciting parent and/or caregiver input beyond use of simple questionnaires.
- Screening must occur in the child and family's primary language.
- Screenings should be combined with additional confirmatory information (parent input, observations, etc).
- A parent or other designated caretaker is present for all screening procedures conducted through home visitation or mobile screening activities.

Referral Services

- When children's screening results indicate they are suspected of having a delay, parents must be informed immediately.
- Families are provided with the contact information of the appropriate referral designation (AzEIP, health care provider, school district).
- If screening is conducted as a component of home visitation, home visitors follow up with families during each subsequent visit to track progress of referral.
- If barriers arise for the family to access additional evaluation services, the home visitor or other program specialist assesses the family needs and assists the family in identifying ways to remove such barriers.

Training and Qualification Standards

Conducting developmental screening requires specific education and skills.

- Educational level: minimum of a bachelor's degree in child development, nursing, early childhood education, child and family studies, or closely related field is preferred.
- All individuals conducting developmental screening will obtain and maintain certification and/ or required training on all of the chosen methods and tools used in screening activities and attend re-certification or additional training courses as required by the tool, the instrument developers, and as it is determined necessary through supervision.
- Personnel who do not meet the preferred education level or are newly trained in developmental screening activities, may only administer developmental screening under the direct supervision of an individual who does meet the training and qualifications standards until it can be documented that the person conducting screening can do so in a reliable manner. This level of supervision is above and beyond the regular supervision activities required in the First Things First Home Visitation or other Standards of Practice. The supervisor will participate with the home visitor or program specialist in conducting screenings and review all completed screening instruments until the home visitor or program specialist is able to consistently conduct screening in a reliable manner. This can be documented in staff's personnel file and family files.
- Areas of knowledge and competencies must be demonstrated in:
 - a. Typical and atypical child development
 - b. Routines based interviewing practices (see http://www.fpg.unc.edu/~inclusion/RBI.pdf)
 - c. Objective child observation
 - d. Appropriate assessment of young children
- Individuals conducting screening will participate in continuing education to remain current and update skills and knowledge regarding developmental screening procedures and child development to meet the requirements of this scope of work.

- To address cultural competency objectives, programs shall ensure that providers, children and families receive from all personnel effective, understandable, and respectful services that are provided in a culturally competent manner- a manner compatible with their cultural beliefs and practices and preferred language. Consultants should receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Consultants should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with providers and their communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement in designing and implementing the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services.
- Individuals conducting screening receive training and information regarding mandatory reporting. Arizona law requires early care and education staff who suspect that a child has received non-accidental injury or has been neglected, to report their concerns to Child Protective Services or local law enforcement (ARS §13-3620.A).

Supervision, Quality Assurance and Evaluation Standards

- Supervision of individuals who administer developmental screening activities is conducted as a collaborative process with mechanisms that support them in challenging situations and provides ongoing and regularly scheduled (no less than monthly) opportunities for discussion to reflect and debrief. Supervision will also include observation, feedback and opportunities for peer consultation.
- Evaluation of home visitation and developmental screening services utilizes quantitative and qualitative process that includes measures of how effectively children are being identified as early as possible for additional intervention and/or support services.
- Compensation and benefits are adequate for supporting high quality staff and retention of that staff.

Supplemental Implementation Activity Standards for Mobile Play-Based Outreach, Education, and Screening Programs

- 1. Activities presented by the mobile unit are conducted using parent and child interactive learning opportunities and provide a range of developmentally appropriate materials to support children's comprehensive development in the physical, cognitive, language/communication, social-emotional, and adaptive skills domains.
- 2. Mobile units maintain schedules that are consistent, predictable, and planned so that families know when and where to expect the mobile unit to arrive.
- 3. Locations of mobile units are the same throughout the service delivery period. For example, the unit may be available at the local library every third Tuesday of the month. Both the location and the time remain consistent.
- 4. The mobile unit focuses on interactive learning and also provides opportunities for children to receive developmental screening before or after the planned play activities are conducted. Exceptions for conducting screening during the course of play activities are when screening includes use of observations of children in naturally occurring activities and play situations.

- 5. Families are provided educational opportunities regarding children's developmental milestones and age appropriate expectations.
- 6. Information on child development and ways to support that development through play and daily activities and routines is provided as a component of the curriculum.
- 7. Additional community information (e.g. location of local support groups, library programs, Quality First participating programs, etc.) is made available to parents and caregivers as needed and/or requested.
- 8. Families who require a referral based on developmental screening results are provided with assistance in locating and accessing sensory (hearing and vision) screening as part of the referral process.

Approved Tools for Screening Children Birth-Age Three

- The core team uses screening processes, as appropriate, with an AzEIP-approved screening tool.
 The following screening tools are approved to determine whether a child is suspected of having a developmental delay:
 - a. PEDS (Parents Evaluation of Developmental Status)
 - b. Ages and Stages Questionnaire
 - c. Ages and Stages Questionnaire: Social Emotional Scale (this tool would need to be supplemented by another tool to ensure all areas of development are covered)
 - d. Battelle Developmental Inventory Screening Test.

Exhibit D

FIRST THINGS FIRST Home Visitation Child Protective Services Policy

FTF Goal: FTF will coordinate and integrate with existing education and information systems to expand families' access to high quality, diverse and relevant information and resources to support their child's optimal development.

FTF Statewide Strategic Direction: Collaborate with family support and education programs to expand services to include the development, enhancement, or implementation of home visiting programs.

FTF will not assume the State of Arizona's nor Arizona's Federally recognized Tribe's responsibilities to provide family preservation or family reunification services for families involved with Child Protective Services.

- 1. If a family* who has an open Child Protective Services' (CPS) case is referred to a First Things First funded home visitation program, the family may be accepted for services if:
 - the CPS case plan is for the case to close within the next 3 months; and
 - · the CPS case plan goal is reunification of the family; and
 - the home visitation program has an opening/capacity to serve the family; and
 - · the family meets the home visitation program's eligibility requirements; and
 - · the family voluntarily accepts services which are not court ordered.
- 2. If a family who is receiving services from a First Things First funded home visitation program is referred to CPS and CPS opens the family's case, the home visitation provider will, on a case by case basis, determine if continued services are appropriate, or if the level of services required is outside of their scope of service provision. FTF's priority is to provide continuity of care and ensure effective service provision. If the home visitation provider is unable to continue service provision, they will coordinate the transition to a provider identified by CPS.

In the two scenarios described above, the First Things First home visitation provider is encouraged to attempt to participate in a case plan staffing or Team Decision-Making meeting (Child Protective Services' case manager, the First Things First funded home visitation program staff, the family and other service providers) to ensure that a case plan is in place to most effectively meet the needs of the family. Family assessment, case plan development and service coordination is critical to effective service provision.

If a grantee is currently providing FTF funded Home Visitation services to a family with an open CPS case when this policy is implemented, the services will be grandfathered in and the grantee will continue to provide services as appropriate.

*Family includes biological parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings, adoptive parents, guardians or others, including extended Indian family members, defined by law or custom of the Tribe, who provide primary care of a child within a household. This does not include foster families.

First Things First Target Service Unit Information

Home visitation

Definitions:

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number).

A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. Target Service Number represents the number of units (e.g. target population) proposed to be served or number of products/services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For example, for the FTF strategy Home Visitation the FTF Unit of Service is "number of families served" and a Target Service Number of 50 represents the number of families the program proposes to serve during the contract period. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

For Home Visitation, the units of service are:

Total number of families receiving home visiting services

Please note, in some FTF reporting and contractual documentation, these units of service will be shorted to read:

Number of families

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Total number of families receiving home visiting services should reflect the total number of families to receive proposed services for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year). Total number of families should not be the proposed caseload to be carried at any period; rather it should reflect a total headcount of all families to receive services and therefore anticipate client turnover.

Performance Measures

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service, in bold); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g. serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g., providing scholarships).

For Home Visitation, performance measures are:

Total number of families receiving home visiting services/proposed service number

Home Visitor caseload /proposed service number

Family attrition/target service number

Home visitor attrition/target service number

Total number of children receiving home visiting services /proposed service number

Total number of families receiving referrals for health insurance or health coverage enrollment/target service number

Total number of families receiving referrals for community based services/ target service number

Total number of children receiving developmental screening/target service number

Total number and percentage of families reported satisfaction with provided home visitation services/total service number (minimum questions provided by FTF)
